Description :

PDF-9440a | A major and sometimes controversial figure of the Harlem Renaissance, Countee Cullen fused a mastery of the formal lyric with a passionate engagement with themes social, religious, racial, and personal in such books as Color, Copper Sun, and The Black Christ. Certain of his poems—"Heritage," "Yet Do I Marvel"—are widely celebrated, but much of Cullen's work remains to be discovered. ... Countee Cullen: Collected Poems: (American Poets Project #32)
